

- D 17. In the Butt Room, Gene is charged with
- cheating on his summer exams.
 - ruining Finny's sports career.
 - injuring Quackenbush at the Crew House.
 - eliminating his roommate so he could have a room alone.
- B 18. Brinker tries to encourage Gene to
- continue as assistant crew manager.
 - enlist and go off to war.
 - look for Leper's beaver dam.
 - join the Golden Fleece Debating Society.
- A 19. Devon School's first recruit to World War II is
- Leper.
 - Quackenbush.
 - Gene.
 - Brinker.
- A 20. Brinker resigns from the presidency of the Golden Fleece Debating Society because
- it is too "civilian."
 - he lost a debate.
 - Gene won't join the organization.
 - he has enlisted.
- C 21. Gene fights his war and wins "a separate peace"
- in France.
 - at home.
 - at school.
 - all of these.
- D 22. Gene's chief war memory is
- training for the Olympics.
 - competing in the Winter Carnival.
 - responding to Leper's telegram.
 - journeying through unknown parts of America.
- B 23. Gene ends his visit with Leper when he
- promises to help him.
 - runs away from Leper.
 - holds Leper and cries with him.
 - laughs at Leper's choice to "escape."

- A 24. The investigation of Finny's accident is managed by
- Brinker.
 - Quackenbush.
 - Finny.
 - Leper.
- A 25. The "investigation" is held in
- an assembly room.
 - the Headmaster's office.
 - The Cage.
 - the Butt Room.
- B 26. The key testimony in the investigation of Finny's accident is given by
- Gene.
 - Leper.
 - Brinker.
 - Finny.
- C 27. After Finny falls down the stairs, the boys react
- in panic.
 - with laughter.
 - with complete presence of mind.
 - in fear.
- D 28. When Gene first visits the infirmary after the investigation, Finny responds with
- relief.
 - joy.
 - sadness.
 - anger.
- C 29. After his father speaks about the war, Brinker reacts with
- pride.
 - tears.
 - resentment.
 - violence.
- A 30. According to Gene, the cause of wars is
- ignorance in the human heart.
 - old men playing games.
 - patriotism.
 - honor.